UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA PENSACOLA DIVISION

IN RE: ABILIFY (ARIPIPRAZOLE)
PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

Case No. 3:16md2734

This Document Relates to the Cases Identified in Exhibit A

Judge M. Casey Rodgers Magistrate Judge Gary Jones

ORDER

On February 20, 2019, the Court formally announced a global settlement between Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel and Defendants, and adopted a settlement program for the resolution of individual plaintiffs' claims. Thereafter, the Court entered several orders designed to facilitate the global settlement. Pursuant to these orders, all individual plaintiffs who chose to participate in the settlement program were required to timely submit a completed claim form, valid supporting documentation for their claim, a fully executed release, and a fully executed stipulation for and/or proposed order of dismissal with prejudice, to the settlement claims administrators. Individual plaintiffs were advised that failure to fulfill the various requirements within the applicable deadlines may result in dismissal of their case with prejudice. To date, the individual plaintiffs identified on Exhibit A have failed to comply with one or more of these directives by either: (1) failing to submit any supporting documentation for their claims; or (2) submitting documentation that fails to establish that the plaintiff used name brand Abilify.

On September 6, 2019, the Court specifically ordered the individual plaintiffs identified on Exhibit A to: (1) submit facially valid supporting documentation for his or her claim to the Claims Administrator, BrownGreer PLC; and (2) show cause why his or her case should not be dismissed for failure to comply with an order of the Court. See ECF No. 1165. The Court emphasized that failure to comply with either of these directives would result in dismissal of a case with prejudice. See id. at 3. The time for compliance has now expired and the individual plaintiffs identified in Exhibit A have either failed to respond to the show cause order or failed to show cause for why his or her case should not be dismissed.

Rule 37(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allows a court to sanction a party, up to and including dismissal of a case with prejudice, for failing to comply with court orders. This authority has particular significance in the MDL context. An MDL judge bears the "enormous" task of "mov[ing] thousands of cases toward resolution on the merits while at the same time respecting their individuality." In re Phenylpropanolamine (PPA) Prod. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1231 (9th Cir. 2006). To carry out this task in an organized and efficient manner, an MDL court must define and strictly adhere to case management rules. See id. at 1232 ("[T]he district judge must establish schedules with firm cutoff dates if the coordinated cases are to move in a diligent fashion toward resolution by motion, settlement, or trial."); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 1 (stating that the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure "should be construed and administered to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding"). In turn, counsel must collaborate with the court "in fashioning workable programmatic procedures" and cooperate with those procedures thereafter. Id. at 1231-32. Pretrial orders and the parties' compliance with those orders and their deadlines— "are the engine that drives disposition on the merits." Id. at 1232. "A [court's] willingness to resort to sanctions in the event of noncompliance can ensure that that the engine remains in tune, resulting in better administration of the vehicle of multidistrict litigation." In re Cook Medical, Inc. Pelvic Repair Sys. Prof. Liab. Litig., 2018 WL 4698953, at *2 (S.D. W. Va. Sept. 28, 2018) (citing Freeman v. Wyeth, 764 F.3d 806, 810 (8th Cir. 2014) ("The MDL judge must be given 'greater discretion' to create and enforce deadlines in order to administrate the litigation effectively. This necessarily includes the power to dismiss cases where litigants do not follow the court's orders.")). However, before levying the severe sanction of dismissal with prejudice under Rule 37, a court must find that a party has "engage[d] in a clear pattern of delay or willful contempt (contumacious conduct)," and that "lesser sanctions would not suffice." Pippen v. Georgia-Pacific Gypsum, LLC, 408 F. App'x 299, *2 (11th Cir. 2011)

(quoting Betty K. Agencies Ltd. V. M/V MONADA, 432 F.3d 1333, 1337-38 (11th Cir. 2005)).

In this case, the Court finds that both prongs of the standard for dismissal with prejudice under Rule 37(b)(2) are satisfied as to the individual cases identified in Exhibit A. Many of the plaintiffs have exhibited a clear pattern of disregarding the Court's orders regarding the settlement program and ignored an order requiring them to show cause why their cases should not be dismissed. Other plaintiffs responded to the show cause order but conceded that they are unable to provide any evidence that they used name brand Abilify. The Court finds that at this advanced stage of the litigation, which has been pending for almost three years, it is not too much to require plaintiffs to provide proof of use in support of their claim that Abilify caused them injury, particularly where they are seeking to be compensated for taking the drug. The Claims Administrators for the settlement program have notified these plaintiffs of their documentation deficiencies multiple times, and even extended the submission deadline, to no avail. More recently, the plaintiffs were warned that failure to provide the requisite documentation would result in dismissal of their cases with prejudice. None of the plaintiffs sought an extension of the Court's deadline for compliance or indicated, by filing a case review certification pursuant to ECF No. 1136, that they instead wish to continue litigating their claim. In light of these plaintiffs' history and the posture of this MDL, the Court finds that dismissal with prejudice is the only acceptable alternative.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that:

- 1. The individual cases identified on Exhibit A are hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE for the plaintiffs' failure to comply with court orders.
- 2. The Clerk is directed to enter a copy of this Order on the individual docket for each of the cases identified in Exhibit A, and then to close those cases in their entirety for all purposes.

SO ORDERED, on this 24th day of September, 2019.
